

Meet the NYSSSWA Board: Carrie Frost

Mid-Hudson Regional Representative

Carrie Frost, LCSW-R is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and School Social Worker with over 20 years of experience supporting and empowering children and families. She has served as a past Executive Board Member and Board Member of NYSSSWA, and is excited to return to the Board to represent the Mid-Hudson Region this year. She is passionate about utilizing education as advocacy, and has presented on issues surrounding trauma, culturally responsive practice and multi-sensory approaches to learning at a variety of professional conferences, including the NYSSSWA State Conference and the Multicultural Education Conference at SUNY New Paltz. She also served on the NYS Safe Schools Task Force; a State Education Department committee which developed New York State SEL guidelines and benchmarks. She is a recipient of the Mid-Hudson School Study Council's Award for Excellence and was nominated for NYSSSWA's Ruth Schwartz School Social Worker of the Year Award. She is proudly practicing as a School Social Worker in the Newburgh Enlarged City School District in Newburgh, NY.
